-----
Mr. Nitin Jamdar, for the Petitioner

Mr. P.M. Patil, AGP for Respondents 1 and 2.

CORAM : F.I. REBELLO &
DR. D.Y.CHANDRACHUD, JJ.
DATED : 24th October, 2005
P.C.

. Rule. Heard forthwith.

. After hearing learned Counsel for the petitioner and the reasons given by the Tribunal in the impugned order we concur with the finding that the petitioner has not made out any case of malafides.

2. It is, however, the contention of the petitioner that she has been transferred contrary to the Government resolution and further it is pointed out that by letter dated 12th May, 2005 the transfer has been sought for in those places considering her health. It will be open to the petitioner to make a fresh representation to the respondents. If the representation is made the respondents to dispose of the same at any rate within two months thereafter. Rule discharged. No order as to costs.
